

While the scriptures point to heaven as our goal and reward for living a life dedicated to God and in accordance with His commands, the descriptions of what heaven will be like are given in general terms. While we may have many questions, what is revealed about heaven is sufficient to motivate us to seek to go there. We must set our sights on the goal of heaven and work diligently for the Lord while here on this earth, so that we can attain the reward promised to the faithful and obedient Christians. Read the following scriptures and give the missing terms used to describe heaven:
