QUESTION OF THE WEEK

To whom were both the books of Luke and Acts written by Luke?

How often do we question what happens in our lives when we do not know the whole story. Consider the following conversation between a man and God.

Man: (all upset) – God, can I ask you a question?

God : Sure

Promise me you won't get mad?

I promise.

Why did you let so much stuff happen to me today?

What do you mean?

Well, I woke up late.

I know.

Then my car took forever to start. And at lunch, they made my sandwich wrong and I had to wait! And then, my phone went dead, just as I picked up a call.

OK

And to top it all off, when I got home, I just wanted to soak my feet in my foot massager and relax, but it wouldn't work. Nothing went right today!

Why did you do that?

Well, let me see .... the death angel was at your bed this morning and I had to send one of the other angels to battle him for your life. I let you sleep through that.

I didn't let your car start right away because there was a drunk driver on your route who might have hit you if you were on the road.

And the first person who made your sandwich today was sick, and I didn't want you to catch what they had – I knew you couldn't afford to miss work.

Your phone went dead because the person who was calling you was going to give a false witness about what you said on that call. I didn't let you talk to them so you would be covered.

Oh, and that foot massager – it has a short in it that was going to knock out all the power in your house, and I didn't think you wanted to be in the dark.

I'm sorry God !

Don't be sorry, just learn to trust me .... in all things, the good, and the bad.

And don't doubt that my plan for your day is always better than your plan.

I won't God, and just let me tell you – thank you for everything today!

You're welcome, my child, I love looking after my children.

Does your faith trust that God will bring good out of any situation that we may face? Only He has the answers to our questions about the things that we do not understand!
