QUESTION OF THE WEEK

When Paul and Barnabas split up and went on separate mission trips, who went with each of them?

Will All Good People Be Saved?

We have heard people say, "God will save all good people." This implies that there are good people in all churches who will be saved. It also implies that there may even be good people who have never been members of any church who will also be saved. Will all good people be saved? What does the Bible have to say?

The Bible teaches that one can never be good enough to be saved by his own goodness. If people could be saved by their good deeds, then it would not have been necessary for Christ to die for our sins. The Apostle Paul wrote: "For by grace are you saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God. Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8,9) Paul also wrote: "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet perhaps for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commends his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:6-8). Even the very best people, who have lived long enough to know the difference between right and wrong, have sinned. The Bible says: As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one... For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:10,23).

In chapter 10 of the book of Acts, we read about a man named Cornelius. Cornelius was a very good man. He was also a very religious man. Cornelius was a worshiper of the true God and had taught his family also to fear God. Too, Cornelius was a man of prayer. He was also kindhearted and generous for "he gave much alms to the people." In spite of his faith and good deeds, Cornelius was not saved. He was told by an angel of God to "Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter; Who shall tell you words, whereby you and all your house shall be saved" (Acts 11:13,14).

Will all good people be saved? The answer is "no," for even the best people have sinned and just one sin can keep a person out of heaven. John wrote, "And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defiles, neither whatsoever works abomination, or makes a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life" (Revelation 21:27).

The only way to remove sin is by the blood of Jesus Christ, in our obedience to the gospel of Jesus Christ. We read in Acts 22:16, "And now what are you waiting for? Arise, and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord."

All good people will not be saved. Neither will all religious people be saved. It is not enough to be religious, but one must be right religiously. Jesus said: "Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up" (Matthew 15:13).

He also said: "Not every one that says to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that does the will of my Father which is in heaven" (Matthew 7:21)

Have you obeyed the gospel of Jesus Christ? If you have not, you are lost! Obey Christ today.
