QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What are included in the fruit of the spirit?

Wisdom comes from every line of Scripture. To fulfill our mission of proclaiming Christ to the world, the travels and experiences of the apostle Paul in Acts 19 provide many lessons. Looking at Acts 19:1-41, we see seven lessons that can be learned:

1. Do it right (1-7). Make sure your obedience is according to the Bible teaching of Jesus, and help others to obey the Lord Jesus in all things, as he commanded in Matthew 28:19-20 where he said, Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. A partial or incorrect obedience requires proper knowledge and correct compliance to be acceptable in God's sight.
2. Find your platform (8-10). The gospel is for proclamation. When the synagogue closed its doors to him, Paul found a school from which to preach. Seek out various ways to reach people.
3. Know what you're doing (11-16). Going off half-cocked by going through the motions without personal obedience and submission to God will leave you exposed and bruised.
4. Don't skip repentance (17-20). Not until sinfulness is exposed - confessed and repented of - will God have space to remake us and use us for the gospel.
5. Make plans for teaching the gospel (21-22). The Lord will, at some point, change our plans, but He does use them to advance the kingdom. James 4:13-16 Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money." Why? You do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that."
6. Expect disturbances (23-27). People have hidden motives and selfish interests and will often attempt to protect them at all costs. Beware! Expect persecution when you stand for the truth. 2 Tim 3:12 In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.
7. Avoid the uncontrollable (28-41). Sometimes you can bring sense to senseless situations; other times, you should stay out of mobs that react violently. Listen to those close to you. Jesus said in Matt 10:16 I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves.
